Life in the Past

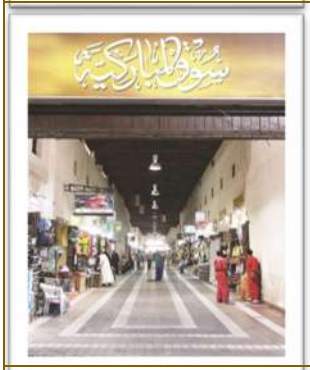
Life was simple in the past. People lived in small houses. They ate fish and fresh vegetables. They didn't have electricity. They used paraffin lamps. They slept on the roof at hot nights.

People in Old Kuwait

People in old Kuwait were very kind. They were co-operative and helpful. Children obeyed and respected the elders. Men used to dive for living and trade with other countries. People ate fish, rice and fresh vegetables.

Dickson House

Dickson House is an old house in old Kuwait. It shows how people lived in the past. There are 30 rooms in Dickson House. There is a big hall and some stairs. We can see a large yard behind the house. I'd like to visit it.



Al-Mubarakiya Market

I like Al-Mubarakiya Souq very much. We buy everything there. We go to the fish market to buy fish. We buy fruit and vegetable at the Fruit and vegetable market. My mother buys necklaces at the gold market.

Al Sadu House

Al Sadu House is an artistic place in Kuwait. It was built to save the heritage of sadu weaving. People in old Kuwait didn't have cloth factories. They wove sadu to make clothes, bags, carpets and mats. It is a nice place.

Failaka Island

Failaka is a beautiful island. It is twenty kilometres from Kuwait City. We can go there by boat. Ancient Greeks were the first people in Failaka. You can visit the temples and the museum there.

A Trip to Failaka Island

Dear Sami/Samia,

How are you? Last weekend, I went to Failaka Island. I went with my family. We went by boat. We took food, water and juice. We felt happy there.

Yours,
