Unit 7 Geriatric Homes

Some people are for geriatric homes, whereas others are against them.

On one hand, some people are for geriatric homes. The elderly have better health care there. Also, they can make friends. These places are quiet. Finally, they can do simple sports like walking.

On the other hand, some people are against geriatric homes. First, they say that their homes are better and safer. Islam orders us to look after and honor the elderly. Moreover, it's against their culture. Also, they can benefit from their wisdom.

Finally, I am against geriatric homes.

Unit 7 Ensuring long life

Our health is better than our money. To live longer we should stay physically and mentally active.

Staying physically active is important. It makes our muscles supple. It is good for our heart. To stay physically active, we should play sports. We can go swimming. Doing exercises is very good. Also, we should eat healthy food. We can eat fruit and vegetables. We should drink a lot of water.

Staying mentally active is important. It makes our brai supple. It improves our thinking. To be mentally active, we should read every day. We can play computer games. Sleep is good for our memory. It helps us relax.

Finally, we should take care of our health..
