B) Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

Read the following passage then answer the questions below:

Dear Harry,

How are you? My family and I are still in Africa. We left Kenya and we are now touring Tanzania. It's a country in the east of Africa. We are having a great time here. Let me tell you about it. On the first day, we visited the capital city, Dodoma. We went to a restaurant and tasted the local food. It is delicious.

The next day, our guide took us to Arusha National Park. It's in the north of Tanzania and it has many beautiful lakes with different water colours. Here you can watch many kinds of birds around the park. This place is the home for the pink flamingos which crowd around the shores of the Great Momela Lake giving it its special pink colour.

How excited I was to see the giraffes, zebras and elephants. Dad helped me to ride on an elephant. At first, I was scared but then, I enjoyed it because the elephant was nice. That's all about me. Ah, I forgot to tell you that we took a lot of photos in all the places we went to. I'll let you see them when I will be back next week.

Yours sincerely,

Oliver

B) Reading Comprehension (16 marks)

-Read the following text carefully, then answer the questions below:

Learning something new can be a scary experience. Learning how to swim was one of the hardest things I've ever had to do. I was always afraid of the water, but I decided that swimming was an important skill that I should learn. I also thought it would be a good exercise that would help me to keep my body fit and strong. Also, it would make me a more confident person.

New situations always make me a bit nervous, but my trainer was very patient and helpful. He taught me to concentrate on my arms and my legs. I felt hopeless. Sooner than I imagined, however, things began to feel "right", and I was able to swim and shoot across the water. Learning to swim was not easy for me, but in the end my persistence paid off. I began to practise swimming from 4 to 6 daily. Now when I am faced with a new situation, I am not so nervous. I know that as I practise being in that situation, I will feel more comfortable. It is a wonderful feeling when you achieve a goal you have set for yourself.
