My name is Osama. I'm twelve years old. I like playing computer games, and I dislike watching TV. My favourite colour is blue.

Reading

Dear mark,

how are you doing? I hope you are doing well. I am Ahmed. I am from Al-Jahar, Kuwait. I AM thirteen and I've got two sisters. Their names are Eman and Noura. Eman is eight and Nora is fourteen. I like school and love sports. My favorite football team is the Kuwait national team. I've got a personal tablet which I use for reading about sports and doing other school tasks. Have you got any brothers or sisters?

Yours, Ahmad.

Hi Ali,

I'm Dan. I'm twelve. I'm from Melbourne, Australia. I had a car accident when I was seven. I was with my parents, my baby brother and my older sister. I broke my left hip and although I had three operations, I still can't walk so I use a wheelchair. Being in a wheelchair didn't limit my abilities; it rather helped me to see the world in a completely different way. I have many hobbies; my favorite is listening to audio stories.

Best wishes, Dan

Hello Fatma,

I'm Lucy from Kansas in the USA. I'm 12. I've got two brothers and a sister. My brothers names are Alan and Richard. Allen is fifteen and Richard is only five. My sister, Noreen, is twenty. She is a chess champion. I love animals and enjoy going to the zoo. I've got a pet goldfish! My favorite place to visit is the zoo.

Kind regards, Lucy

Name	Age	Country	City	Family	Favourites
Ahmad	Thirteen	Kuwait	Al-jahra	Two sisters	Kuwait National Team
Dan	Twelve	Australia	Melbourne	One brother and one sister	Listening to audio stories
Lucy	Twelve	USA	Kansas	Two brothers and one sister	Zoo

Q What difficulties might the physically challenged people and those with special needs face?

- There might not be parking spots for them close to the place they want to go to.
- It might be difficult for them to enter some buildings if they are on a wheelchair.

Q Look at Ahmad's school project and match the sentences with the pictures.

I use it to take amazing pictures.

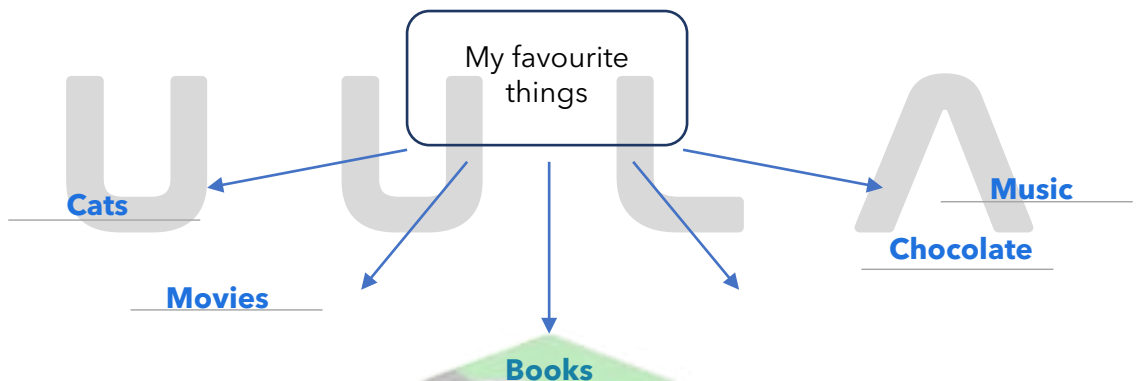

I need it to watch films.

He is a Kuwaiti athlete.

It's delicious. Mmmmm!

The diagram shows a boy standing on a large 'UULA' watermark. Surrounding him are five images: a football player in a blue jersey with 'KUWAIT' and the number '17' on it; a tablet displaying '09:56'; a chocolate bar; a black camera; and a black microphone. Lines connect the sentences to the images: 'I use it to take amazing pictures.' connects to the camera; 'I need it to watch films.' connects to the tablet; 'He is a Kuwaiti athlete.' connects to the football player; 'It's delicious. Mmmmm!' connects to the chocolate bar; and an unlabeled line connects the microphone to the boy.

Q What are your favourite things?

Mud Houses

old Kuwaiti houses were made using rocks and mud. They had a spacious courtyard in the middle where the family would usually get together. The roof was made of "Jandal" which is strong wood.

Igloos

An igloo is a temporary home for Inuit people in the Arctic. It is easy to build out of ice blocks and has got a fire in the middle. It is warm, comfortable and very safe, especially against storms.

Wooden Houses

In Poland, the tradition of wooden homes is 1000 years old. Wooden homes are easy to build with trees. They are eco-friendly and healthier to live in. They are naturally warm in winter and cool in summer.

Q Write a sentence about each type of houses:

- Mud houses are bigger than the other houses.
- Igloos are very interesting to live in.
- Wooden houses don't damage the environment.

Write a short email to your friend suggesting two ideas on how to support people with special needs in your country.

PLAN:

Email:

Dear Sara,

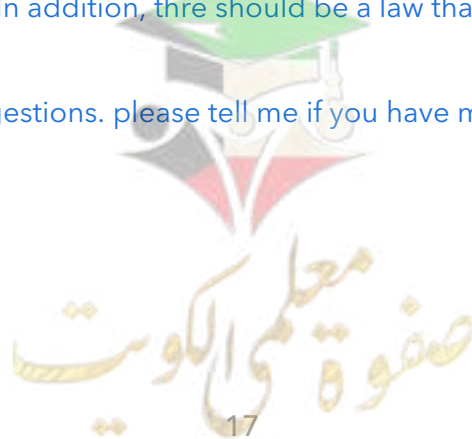

How are you? I hope you are well. I am writing this email to suggest ways to help people with special needs in Kuwait.

My first suggestion is building a place that provides services only for special needs people. This will make the services faster. Also, getting inside this building will be easier because there will be less people there. In addition, paper work can be delivered to their homes.

my second suggestion is setting strong laws to protect their rights. Those who park their cars in the place of special needs people should be fined. there should be laws against treating them differently. In addition, there should be a law that makes all places create an entrance for wheelchairs.

i hope you like my suggestions. please tell me if you have more ideas. Write soon.

Yours,
Dalal;p

🔴 Can you name any of these sports?

Football - cycling - tennis - skating - running

🔴 What is your favourite sport?

My favourite sport is basketball

Read the following story:

Ahmed loves all kinds of sports. He plays in the school football team. His best friend, Yaser, plays in the team, too. Both of them can play tennis. Ahmed is also very good at swimming. One day, Ahmed and Yaser saw a programme on TV. It is about a new sport called cave diving.

Ahmed: I want to try that!

Yaser: It looks dangerous to me.

Ahmed: I need good equipment and a good teacher, that's all.

It is the day of Ahmed's first cave dive. His diving equipment is very heavy. He holds a coloured blue line to show him where to swim. He follows his teacher. He dives down into a very big cave. The water is warm. The cave is quite dark. He can see his teacher's light in front of him. Then, suddenly, he can't see the light. Ahmed is afraid! Does he follow the teacher? No! He holds the blue line and waits. He waits for five minutes, but it feels like a long time. He remembers two important things. One: don't leave the line. Two: don't follow, think! His teacher comes back. Ahmed is very happy. Together they swim out of the cave to safety.

Answer the following questions:

True (T) or False (F):

- Q Yaser plays tennis but Ahmad does not. (F)
- Q Yaser wants to try cave diving. (F)
- Q Ahmad's equipment is very heavy. (T)
- Q Ahmad feels cold in the water. (F)
- Q What would you do if you were in Ahmad's place?

I would be afraid, but I would wait in the same spot and flash a light so my teacher can find me.

Sky is the Limit

RIO DE JANEIRO, Sept 11, 2016 (KUNA):

Ahmad Al-Mutairi came first in the men's 100 m race at the Rio 2016 Paralympics. Ahmad Al-Mutairi is a Kuwaiti para-sport athlete who has broken numerous world records in wheelchair racing. Al-Mutairi was introduced to sport while at school, playing wheelchair basketball. One of his PE teachers saw potential in Almutairi and suggested that he joined the Kuwaiti Sports Club for the Disabled. Initially he joined the basketball team, but after five months, one of the trainers advised him to try other sports. Almutairi tried out wheelchair racing and found that he excelled at the sport. In 2009 he entered his first track and field competition, held in the United Arab Emirates.

In 2011, he took part in the World Championships in New Zealand. In 2012, Al-Mutairi was selected for the Kuwait team at the Summer Paralympics in London. The next year, Al-Mutairi travelled to Lyon to compete in the 2013 Athletics World Championships. His first major medal success came the following year at the 2014 Asian Para Games in South Korea where he was able to win two silver medals. Throughout 2015, Almutairi continued to improve his times, and set a new world record in Switzerland. Later that year he represented Kuwait at his third World Championship, in Doha, Qatar. In the final he set a championship record of 17.53 to beat his nearest rival by over a second and a half.

Answer the following questions:

- ❑ Ahmad Al-Mutairi first played wheelchair basketball. (T)

Tom is 13 years old. He's from England. Look at his school day and answer the questions below.

05:30 The alarm clock rings. I have to get up. I take a shower. Then I go to the kitchen to prepare my breakfast. I read the local newspapers and check my school bag.

06:30 I set off for school. I sometimes go to school by bus. However, I normally go by bicycle. It all depends on the weather.

07:30 Classes begin. We usually have five classes and a twenty-minute break between the third and fourth classes.

13:30 Morning classes end, but we can't go home. After lunch in the school canteen, we spend half an hour in the school leisure hall where we can do different activities. I often play table tennis with my friends.

14:30 Afternoon activities begin. Although these classes don't determine our success, we have to take one. The school provides us with opportunities to learn poetry, painting, music, acting or any other activity we prefer. Personally, I go for reading classes where I learn a lot about the world.

16:30 I'm home again. This means I can have some time with my family before I do my homework. We watch TV or talk about the busy day. Most of the time I go to bed before midnight.

Decide whether these sentences are True (T) or False (F). Correct the false ones:

- Q Tom gets up at five o'clock. (F) 5:30
- Q His father takes him to school at 6:30. (F) He goes to school by bus
- Q He has lunch in the school canteen. (T)
- Q He goes to painting classes in the afternoon. (F) Reading

Q Compare your school day to Tom's.

I wake up at 6:30 am and eat breakfast fast. Classes in my school start at 7:45. We have seven classes everyday with two breaks between them. We finish at 1:35 pm.

Q What do you like about Tom's school?

They have many different afternoon activities.

Read Tom's timetable again and complete the following paragraph:

Tom's mother does not cook him his breakfast. He prepares it himself. After that, he goes to school by bus if the weather is bad, otherwise he goes by bicycle. At school, he takes five classes in the morning and a free one in the afternoon. Although the school day is busy, Tom enjoys its different activities.

Q What facilities do you have in your school?

We have a canteen, a library, a computer lab, a science lab, and a sport hall.

Read the following messages, and discuss what the students like about their schools.

Abdullah (Kuwait): Our school is running an interesting project. We've got a garden where we grow fruit and vegetables. I enjoy gardening and watching things grow.

Sam (England): My school's got a wonderful new art studio. I love doing art in the classes after school. I'm making a model at the moment.

Dexter (Scotland): There's a breakfast club in my school. You go there before class for breakfast. I usually have cereal and orange juice. I chat with my friends. I don't have time for breakfast at home, so it's great.

Charles (Australia): I love the chess club in my school. It starts in the break and I usually go there twice a week. Sometimes I win!

What do the students like about their schools?

Q Abdullah:

He likes the garden

Q Sam:

He likes the new art studio.

Q Dexter:

He likes the breakfast club

Q Charles:

He likes the chess club

Q Whose school do you like best? Why?

I like Dexter's school because I also like eating breakfast with my friends.

Q How do you spend your time after school?

I usually drink some tea and read a novel.

If you want to learn the Holy Quran, join one of our centers in the six governorates of Kuwait We help not only to recite the Holy Quran, but also to understand the contemporary Islamic issues. Our classes are convenient to everyone.

This thriving riding center provides both new and experienced riders with the opportunity to learn more about horses and riding with our experienced instructors. For parents and friends who do not ride themselves, you can enjoy a coffee and a snack in KRC's interesting grounds. We look forward to welcoming you to our center!

We offer martial arts training for adults and kids. Our main branch is located in Salmiya, but we have more branches all over Kuwait.

Decide which of the previous after-school activities you would probably join.

- ❑ Write a short paragraph about your school comparing its activities with other schools you know and stating what you like about it.

PLAN:

Paragraph:

My school has so many great and fun activities just like other schools. My school has gardening activities as well as painting classes. My old school had more interesting activities such as acting classes, movie making and journalism. Despite that, I still enjoy gardening in this school because I enjoy working with plants and flowers.

there are many things I like about my school. First, my school encourages all students to pick an activity. Second, they provide all the tools we need to practice the activity. This means that they don't ask us to buy anything. Third, they give us bonuses when we accomplish something great for the society or the environment. All in all, having a school like mine is really great.

Read the following news article and answer the questions below:

Desert Delights: Camping in Kuwait

Kuwait: One of the joys of life for Kuwaitis is to spend time in the desert. Desert camping is a popular old Kuwaiti tradition. It's ideal between November and March when temperatures go down and the weather is cold.

In the past, camping required only a tent. At night, lights were provided by oil lamps, and cooking was done over the campfire.

Today's modern camping experience involves SO much more. There are modern appliances and facilities available in the camps. People use small tents as sleeping places and large family tents as family gathering places which are supplied with lights, satellite television and couches. There is usually a kitchen that is made of aluminium and may include a gas stove for cooking.

People spend a day or a week in camps. They enjoy many desert activities. During the day, children and young people enjoy playing different ball games, board games and kite flying. Family members and friends have Arabic coffee and dates, walk in the desert, watch TV and finish with barbecue dinner. At night, they all sit around the campfire and tell stories.

Read the newspaper article, then match the headings with the paragraphs.

- Q Camping Nowadays (3rd)
- Q An Old Kuwaiti Tradition (1st)
- Q Camping Activities (4th)
- Q Camping in The Past (2nd)

- Q (2) Taking enough food
- Q (6) Wearing a hat
- Q In addition to the mentioned above, what else would you advice your friends to do when they go camping?

Bring your favourite board game and card game so you don't get bored.
Bring gas for your stove.

Q Look at the pictures. What do you see?

These are 360 mall and the Avenues mall.

The Avenues Mall

Make sure you visit the Avenues, one of Kuwait's largest malls, which will definitely take your shopping experience to a different level.

It was officially opened in April 2007 and is located in Al Rai area. The Avenues has been designed to reflect the natural lines of the Arabian Desert.

The mall has been divided into four phases which include the world's famous stores and international high fashion and luxury brands from across Europe, the United States, Asia and Africa. The roof of the 2nd Avenue is made of glass to allow the sun to light up the internal area giving an outdoor feel. The Souk, which is located in Phase III, brings back the feeling of old Kuwait as it is similar to a traditional Kuwaiti souk with many small shops.

The Avenues Cinema has multi-screen movie Theatres with 11 screens (including a VIP cinema). The Avenues is the house to a wide variety of the finest outdoor and indoor restaurants in Kuwait. Furthermore, some of the greatest cafés in Kuwait are located in this mall. The Avenues stands as an iconic symbol of development and modern civilization.

- Eid Al-Fitr _____ 1st
- Eid Al-Adha _____
- Kuwait's National Day _____ 3rd
- Hala February _____
- Chinese New Year _____ 2nd

Q This Eid celebrates the end of Ramadan, in the ninth month of the Islamic calendar. It is a religious festival of happiness and joy. It's not always on the same date because it follows the calendar of the new moon.

In the morning, people go to Eid Prayer. They wear new clothes and young people receive gifts and money. It is a time when Muslims think about the poor and help them, and a time for forgiveness. The celebrations last for three days and schools and offices close.

By: Jassim Hussein

Q This celebration happens in late January or early February in China and follows the calendar of the new moon. I celebrates spring and lasts fifteen days.

People clean their homes and decorate them with red decorations, flowers, fruit and sweets. People wear new clothes and visit their family and friends. Red is a lucky colour and young people receive gifts of money in red envelopes. On the fifteenth night, a lantern festival is held in the streets. There is a huge lion parade with dancers and musicians playing loud drums.

By: Yi Lina

Q Kuwaitis celebrate this day every 25th of February. It is a mark of the historic struggle for independence and the wonderful past of the country.

This day is celebrated with great activities. Public gettogethers are held. Official buildings as well as modern hotels are magnificently decorated with lights and flags.
