

Writing

Some people prefer the country life where it is quiet and calm. Others prefer big cities where it is lively and convenient.

Plan and write an Argumentative essay of 14 sentences (160 words) presenting both views and stating your own position on the issue.

Outline

Introduction:

Hook: Do you enjoy the hustle and bustle of city life or dream of peace and quiet?

Background: Living in the city or the country is a controversial issue.

Thesis: Some people prefer the country life where it is quiet and calm. Others prefer big cities where it is lively and convenient.

Body:

Paragraph one Arguments for living in the city

- better life (حياة أفضل)
- more jobs (فرص عمل أكثر)
- good public services (خدمات عامة جيدة)
- interesting life (حياة ممتعة)

Paragraph two Arguments for living the country

- fresh air (هواء نقي)
- peace and quiet (سلام وهدوء)
- beauty of nature (جمال الطبيعة)
- cheap (رخيص)

Conclusion: To sum up, living in the city or the country is one of the issues that people disagree about. I think, living in the city is better than living in the country and it can be an enjoyable experience.

Town and country (المدينة و الريف)

Do you enjoy the hustle and bustle of city life or dream of peace and quiet? Living in the city or the country is a controversial issue. Some people prefer the country life where it is quiet and calm. Others prefer big cities where it is lively and convenient.

On the one hand, some people prefer living in the city. They think cities have better life. Also, they believe that cities offer them more jobs. In addition, they claim that cities have good public services. Finally, they say that city life is very interesting.

On the other hand, other people prefer living in the country for different reasons. First, they think that in the country they can enjoy the fresh air. Second, they say that the country give them peace and quiet. Third, strongly believe that they can enjoy the beauty of nature there. Finally, they claim that life in the country is very cheap.

To sum up, living in the city or the country is one of the issues that people disagree about. I think, living in the city is better than living in the country and it can be an enjoyable experience.

