

In (6) sentences write a paragraph to describe one of your family celebrations you witnessed

Outline

Introduction

Have you ever taken part in your family occasions?

Body

my brother's graduation / friends gathered / offered gifts / spent a lovely time / guests were happy / we sang songs / took photos

Conclusion

I think family celebrations make family ties stronger

Have you ever taken part in your family occasions? Family isn't just an important thing, but it is everything. Last month, I attended a large party that was held to celebrate my brother's graduation. First, all the family members and close friends gathered in the family house. Then, we offered our gifts to my brother. After that, we had dinner together and spent a lovely time. All guests were very happy. We sang songs and took photos together. I think family celebrations make family ties stronger.

In (6) sentences write a paragraph to describe your journey to Saudi Arabia to do Hajj

Outline

Introduction

Have you ever done Hajj?

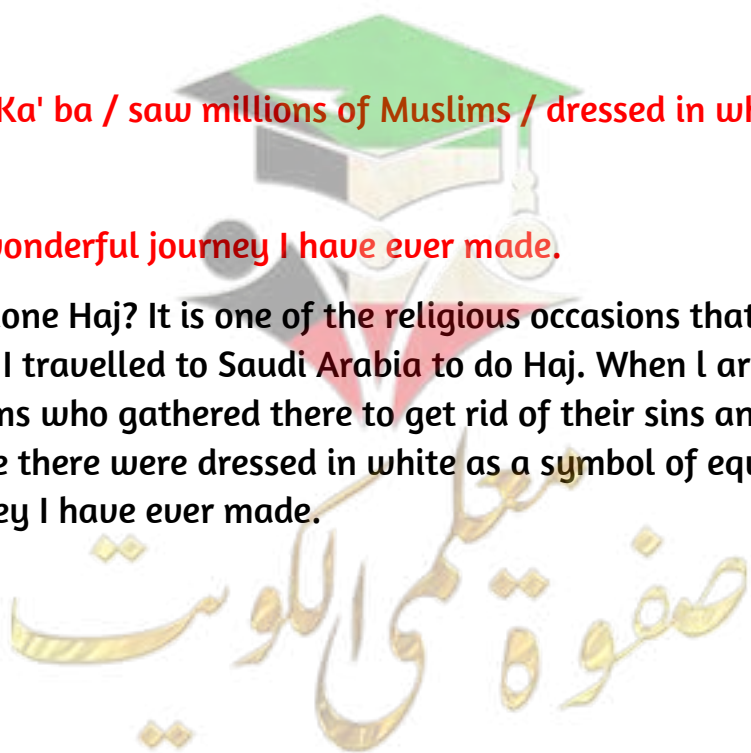

Body

do Haj / arrived at Al Ka' ba / saw millions of Muslims / dressed in white

Conclusion

I think it is the most wonderful journey I have ever made.

Have you ever done Haj? It is one of the religious occasions that Muslims celebrate every year. Last year, I travelled to Saudi Arabia to do Haj. When I arrived at Al Ka' ba, I saw millions of Muslims who gathered there to get rid of their sins and to ask Allah for forgiveness. All people there were dressed in white as a symbol of equality. I think it is the most wonderful journey I have ever made.

In (6) sentences write a paragraph to describe your favourite meeting place

Outline

Introduction

Where do you usually meet your friends?

Body

meet my friends / socialize and have a nice time / wonderful decoration / a quiet place / a variety of drinks / excellent service

Conclusion

I advise you to try it and you will never regret.

Where do you usually meet your friends? I always meet my friends at "Star Bucks", where we can socialize and have a nice time. I like everything in that place. It has wonderful decoration to attract its visitors. It is a quiet place where you can do your paperwork. It offers a variety of drinks. The service there is excellent. I advise you to try it and you will never regret.

In (6) sentences write a paragraph to describe a festival you attended in Kuwait

Outline

Introduction

Every country has its own festivals

Body

unforgettable events / marching in the Gulf Street / clothes with the flag of Kuwait / sang patriotic songs / took part in many activities / big discounts

Conclusion

I really enjoyed the atmosphere of the festivities

Every country has its own festivals. They remind people of their shared heritage and culture. Hala February festival is my best one in Kuwait. Last February, I felt more than happy to attend its unforgettable events. I went marching in the Gulf Street with my friends. Many people were dressed clothes with the flag of Kuwait on it. We sang patriotic songs and took part in many activities. All the stores offered big discounts for its visitors. I really enjoyed the atmosphere of the festivities

