Read the following passage then answer the questions below:

Sami has never flown on an airport before. He was very nervous as he rolled his suitcase toward the departing gate. A very gentle man checked his ticket and told him it was time to board. When he and his father found their seats, they put their seatbelts and waited for the plane to take off. Sami clutched the armrests of his seat so tightly. "How long will we be on the air?" asked Sami. "About three hours," answered his father, "But don't worry, I brought some books and board games. The time will pass quickly." Sami started to relax a little when his father read a funny story. Then they played cards and read some more books. At 6 o'clock pm later, the
