Save endangered animals

Have you ever thought about the number of animals that die every day and are threatened with extinction ? for reasons most of them are human ? I will talk in my paragraph about its causes and how we can control it .

And of course, animals don't become extinct without a reason, and I believe most of them are by humans, and one of the most important of these reasons is the loss of habitat. When a person cuts down trees, the animals that live in the trees will lose their home, as well as overfishing. It is difficult for animals to reproduce.

Since most of the causes of the extinction of animals are due to man, then it is certain that there are ways in the hand of man to reduce the extinction of animals. First of the most important of these methods is the responsibility to buy. There is a group of people with superficial thinking that may buy products made from animal skins or even their parts. People stop buying these things, this will affect the decrease in the number of number of animals that are threatened with extinction, and also the donations and donations may be money to zoos, and it may also be time, for example volunteering time to clean the beaches, and there are many volunteers from people helping animals.

In the conclusion, I will say that we must maintain peace and tranquility in the life of animals, and a person can't be selfish to the point of living in the universe alone. We can't imagine the universe without animals, so let us preserve the relationship between living beings .

Chili's Restaurant

Everyone heard a while ago that Chili's recently opened a branch in the Salhiya area, specifically opposite the famous Salhiya complex in Kuwait City .. The restaurant is called (Chili's Two) and here I want to stop until the name does not mean that the restaurant follows the Express system or something similar .. The name only has to do with space, no more; in regular Chili's restaurants, more are served than the number imposed in Chili's to .. That is, there is no difference in quality, price, or service, as it is the same as in large Chili's restaurants only. The restaurant is medium in size and I chose a very wonderful period, which is right after the work period, and for my luck there was no crowding at all .. I enjoyed a lot with my children .. I even enjoyed the quality of the food, which also varied between appetizers from nachos and small pizza for children in addition to American fries .. As for my main course, it consisted of fajitas (Jack Fajitas) and delicious burgers. Chili's Too became one of my favorite restaurants, especially in a quiet and not crowded area ..
