3 Reading Comprehension

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follows.

Cyberbullying happens when someone uses phones, messages, or social media to hurt or embarrass others. It can make people feel sad, scared, or alone. Therefore, we must use the internet wisely. Think before you post any comment. Ask yourself: "Is this kind? Is this true? Is this necessary?" If someone is being cruel online, do not answer. Take a screenshot, block the person, and tell a trusted adult. Never share private photos or passwords, even with friends. Choose positive accounts to follow and write supportive comments. Remember, there is always a real person behind the screen, with real feelings. Using social media with kindness helps everyone feel safe and respected.

1. The meaning of the underlined word "cruel" in the 4th line is:
a. happy      b. upset      c. unkind      d. grateful
2. The writer's main purpose in writing this paragraph is to:
a. advise readers to avoid bullying.      b. show how to protect your password.
c. inform you of helpful apps.      d. tell a sad story about an online user.

“Trustworthiness is an important quality in today’s world because it makes people believe in your words and actions.”

1 a. Plan and write a two-paragraph report persuading

being a trustworthy person is more important than increasing likes and followers online. Provide two reasons and support them with examples and evidence.

Persuade your readers by using persuasive techniques (facts, thinking questions, repetition, and a call to action).
