A. Grammar: Purpose Connectors (to, in order to, so that).

1. Complete the conversation with the correct connectors (to, in order to, so that). Then, read with your partner.

Why did you wake up early? I woke up early to catch the bus.

Why did they bake a big cake? They baked a cake in order to surprise their teacher.

Why do you save money? I save money so that I can give it to the poor.

2. Complete the sentences by adding suitable reasons.

- I bring my camera to take photos.
- I use a calendar in order to organise my time.
- We build robots in the science class so that we can learn about technology.

B. Grammar: Present Continuous

1. Look at the pictures. Write what they are doing now.

She is writing at the moment.

They are running now.

2. Write 2 sentences using the present continuous tense to show what you are doing this weekend.

- I am visiting my grandparents this weekend.
- I am studying for my English test on Saturday.

Words That Go Together: Stay Safe with Collocations!

What are collocations?

Collocations are words that often go together.

For example, we say:

- make a mistake ✓ not (do a mistake ✗)
- stay safe ✓ not (be safe ✗)
- follow instructions ✓ not (obey instructions ✗)

We use collocations to sound natural in English.

Safety Collocations – Learn & Remember

1. Match the collocations.

A		B
wear	4	1. alert, safe, calm
listen to	5	2. danger, accidents
stay	1	3. signs, instructions, rules
follow	3	4. a seatbelt, a helmet
avoid	2	5. announcements, warnings

2. Circle the correct verb to complete each sentence.

- You must stay / follow / wear) alert in crowded places.
- Always avoid / stay / make) danger during a fire drill.
- (Listen to / Wear / Follow) the safety announcement before the plane takes off.
- We should wear / make / do) a helmet when cycling.

Look for more examples online and share them with your classmates.

Write & Share:

3. Think of a time you followed safety rules. Write three sentences using at least two collocations.

Example: "I stayed alert when crossing the street. I followed the traffic lights."

- I stayed alert while crossing the road.
- I followed the safety instructions.
- I wore a seatbelt in the car.
