Let's Use the Dictionary

A. Arrange the following words in alphabetical order.

1- cruise

2- tour

3- contrast

4- gallery

1. contrast, 2. cruise, 3. gallery, 4. tour

B. Which word comes first in the dictionary: contrast or cruise? Why?

Ways to Use a Dictionary

Skill	Why We Use It	Example
Look up words using alphabetical order	To find words easily based on their spelling.	cruise comes before design
Identify the part of speech	To know if a word is a noun, verb, adjective, or adverb.	attract (v), pleasant (adj)
Understand word meaning and usage	To use the word correctly in context.	event = something that happens
Find synonyms and antonyms	To use words with similar or opposite meanings.	happy → joyful (synonym), happy → sad (antonym)

C. Write the words in alphabetical order as they would appear in a dictionary.

(event- attract- design- incredible- recommend- exhibition)

1. attract 2. design 3. event
4. exhibition 5. incredible 6. recommend

When words begin with the same letter, check the second and third letters to know which comes first.

D. Complete the table for each word. Write the part of speech, meaning, and a sentence of your own.

Word	Part of speech	Meaning	Sentence
attend	verb	to be present	I will attend the meeting.
chance	noun	possibility of something happening	It is a chance to visit the museum.
stunning	adjective	extremely impressive	Kuwait Towers are stunning.
uniquely	adverb	in a way unlike anything else	The building was uniquely designed.
